

Wednesday, September 3, 2008

Duxbury Clipper

Slain Officer Honored By Police From Around the State

Officers salute as Dyer's casket is removed from the hearse and carried into the church.

Duxbury Police Officer Mel Dyer, who died as a result of injuries sustained when he was struck by a car while working at the Marshfield Fair, was laid to rest at St. Christine's Church in Marshfield Tuesday morning. Hundreds of police officers from around the state, and dignitaries including Gov. Deval Patrick attended.

Photo courtesy of Jim Pantano

Police officers from all across the state attended the funeral, held Tuesday morning at Saint Christine's Church in Marshfield.